

Helping employers...

...find the right Aboriginal person for the job and provide workforce development options to meet your and their needs.

At no cost we will:

- Enhance your current partnerships for recruiting Aboriginal people
- Be a support mechanism in the recruitment processes
- Develop customised pre-employment and industry specific training to ensure new employees have the right skills for you
- Mentor your new employees during the first 6 months of employment in your business
- Assist you to meet or exceed, your Aboriginal employment targets
- Assist you to access funding and incentives to support VTEC member salary and training

Further services with other funding support arrangements through:

Wage Subsidies options:

- Provide advice and assistance with accessing Indigenous Wage Subsidy (IWS)
 - Potentially up to $6,600 Full Time and $3,300 Part Time employment
 - Can potentially access up to $8,400 subject to eligibility
- Working with VTEC Partner network with Job Services Australia (JSA's) Providers accessing Employment Pathway Fund (EPF)

Australian Apprenticeships Support Services access:

- Working with Australian Apprenticeships Centres (AAC'S) to access potential Australian Apprenticeship and Traineeship funding to support employment training arrangements
 - Potentially up to $5,000 for Apprenticeships
 - Potentially up to $4,000 for Traineeships

Workforce Development options:

- Work with industry to develop contextualised pre-training “work ready”
- Accessing potentially fee exempt Smart and Skilled nationally accredited training for employees
- Mentor the employee in the workplace to ensure that the time investment can ensure the sustainability and retention of the Aboriginal employee in the position.
